

Bocce fun

Dozens participated in the first indoor bocce league at 89 North, which concluded last week in a competitive tournament. One player, Sal Martinico of Brookhaven, has played bocce for many years and even competed a few times at the St. Liberata Italian festival in Patchogue Village. "Playing in this league has been a great experience," said Martinico. "There's been a lot of excitement and I enjoy the friendly competition." A new session of the bocce league will begin the second week of January. For more information, contact 89 North Music Venue at 631-730-8992 or visit 89northmusic.com.

- Krystle DiNicola